The answer to the riddle "What has a bottom at the top?" is a leg! ?

Explanation: Well, legs are quite mischievous, you know! They start at the bottom of our bodies, but they somehow manage to sneak their way up and end up at the top. Silly legs, always trying to defy gravity! ? Guess they just wanted a better view from up there! So, next time you see someone with their bottom at the top, don't be alarmed, it's just their legs playing pranks on them! ??
