Short Answer: Because his bed told him it needed a morning jog! ????

Explanation: The boy ran around his bed because he believed his bed said it wanted to go for a jog. In this lighthearted scenario, the bed came to life and demanded some exercise to start the day off right! It adds a touch of whimsy and humor to the situation, making it a fun and playful reason for the boy's actions. The emoji of a little running figure helps visualize the boy's morning sprint around his bed.
