```html A Prayer for Deliverance from Spiritual Bondage: Finding Freedom in Christ

Heavenly Father, I humbly approach Your throne today, my heart heavy with the weight of spiritual bondage. Romans 8:15 assures me I haven't received a spirit of slavery, but of adoption as Your beloved child. I cling to this promise, Lord, knowing true freedom resides in Christ.

Gracious God, I cry out to You, for I understand that only through prayer can I break these binding chains. Psalm 34:17 reminds me that when the righteous cry for help, You hear and deliver them from all their troubles. I trust in this truth, knowing You are the God who sees, hears, and rescues.

Lord Jesus, I turn to You, the author and perfecter of my faith. John 8:36 declares that if the Son sets me free, I will be truly free. With tears, I surrender my struggles, fears, and shortcomings to You. I lay them at the foot of the cross, acknowledging Your sacrifice has already secured my deliverance.

Heavenly Father, I lift up those bound in spiritual captivity. May they find solace in Your loving embrace, discovering the freedom found only in You. I intercede for my family, that they too may experience Your deliverance and live lives dedicated to Your glory. As I pour out my heart, I choose to trust in Your unwavering faithfulness. Proverbs 3:5-6 urges me to trust You with all my heart and not lean on my own understanding. I surrender my doubts, insecurities, and fears, knowing You are my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

Finally, I offer my deepest gratitude for Your unwavering love and unending grace. Thank You, God the Father, for the gift of salvation and the freedom found in Your Son, Jesus Christ. Thank You, Holy Spirit, for Your guidance and comfort during struggles. I am eternally grateful for Your presence in my life.

In Jesus' name, I pray,

Amen.
