```html A Prayer for a Friend in Need: Finding Strength in God's Embrace

Heavenly Father, I come before You today with a heart burdened by the struggles of a dear friend. Your Word, in 2 Corinthians 1:3-4, assures us that You are the God of all comfort, and I implore You to shower Your divine comfort upon them in their time of need. Their pain is palpable, their weariness deep; may they feel the encompassing warmth of Your loving arms, finding the strength to persevere through this difficult season.

Lord, You are intimately aware of every tear shed, every burden carried. Psalm 34:18 speaks of Your closeness to the brokenhearted, Your saving grace for those crushed in spirit. May my friend find solace and refuge in Your unwavering presence, a sanctuary where their soul can find rest and healing.

Jesus, our compassionate Savior, I lift my friend to You, the ultimate source of hope and salvation. Matthew 11:28 extends an invitation to those weary and burdened, promising rest in Your embrace. I pray You lighten their load, granting them a peace that surpasses all understanding, a tranquility that transcends earthly turmoil.

Holy Spirit, Advocate and Comforter, I invite Your presence into this prayer. As Romans 8:26 reminds us, You intercede for us with unspoken groanings when words fail. I ask that You intercede on behalf of my friend, conveying their deepest needs and desires to our Heavenly Father, ensuring their voice is heard in the quiet sanctuary of Your presence.

Father, I pray for a spiritual renewal in my friend's life, a strengthening of their faith amidst the storm. Remind them of Your boundless love and grace, an unwavering constancy in the face of life's uncertainties. Help them to trust in Your perfect plan, even when the path ahead seems obscured by doubt and despair. May they find comfort in the promise of Romans 8:28, knowing that You are working all things together for their ultimate good.

Extend Your comfort, Lord, to those surrounding my friend, those impacted by their struggles. Grant them wisdom and guidance in offering support and encouragement. May they become beacons of Your light, radiating strength and love, a tangible reflection of Your unwavering presence in their lives.

With unwavering faith, I believe in Your power to hear and answer our prayers according to Your divine will. Thank You, Lord, for being our loving Father, our unfailing source of comfort, and our steadfast support. May Your peace reign supreme in my friend's heart, enveloping them in Your boundless love, now and always.

In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.
